

Project Description Component: Ecosystem Functions

Feature	Description	Notes
San Joaquin River Inflow in the summer and early fall.	San Joaquin River inflow will be improved through the contributions of additional flows on the Stanislaus River. To improve conditions for steelhead USBR will increase minimum flows in July to 600 cfs, in August to 550 cfs, and in September to 400 cfs.
New Melones Reservoir Storage Dedication	15 TAF will be reserved in New Melones Reservoir to to be released during the June through September period to contribute to meeting the SDWA's needs.	